

Bertelsen, Lise (KF)

Member of the Folketing,
The Conservative Party

Folketinget, Christiansborg
1240 Copenhagen K

Mobile phone: +45 6162 4970

Email: lise.bertelsen@ft.dk

Homepage: <https://lisebertelsen.konservative.dk>

Lise Bertelsen, born 8 September 1975 in Aarhus, lives in Viborg, daughter of general practitioner Paul Jørgensen and nurse Mona Jørgensen. Married to Claus Bertelsen. The couple has three children.

Member period

Member of the Folketing for The Conservative Party in Western Jutland greater constituency from November 1st 2022.

Candidate for The Conservative Party in Viborg East nomination district from 2021.

Parliamentary career

Spokeswoman on research and higher education from 2023.

Spokeswoman on municipal affairs from 2023.

Spokeswoman on psychiatry from 2023.

Spokeswoman on education from 2023.

Education

MA in Professional Guidance, Master Degree Programme in Professional Guidance, Aarhus University, Emdrup, 2014.

Diagnostic observation, the Danish Autism Centre, København, 2011.

Cognitive therapies, Aarhus University Hospital, 2010.

Special needs education, Viborg Seminariet (teacher-training college), 1999.

Employment

Special needs educator (on leave of absence), Børne- og ungdomspsykiatrisk Regionscenter (regional child and adolescent psychiatry centre), Viborg from 1999.

Affiliations

Chairwoman of the voluntary organization Søndagskaffe (volunteers inviting elderly citizen for Sunday Coffee) from 2022.

Member of the town council in the Viborg municipality (vice-chairwoman of the senior citizens and activity committee, vice-chairwoman of the employment committee) from 2021.

Committees/Spokesman 20. maj 2024

Current committees

Member of

The Children's and Education Committee

The Digitization and IT Committee

The Domestic Affairs Committee
The Health Committee
The Higher Education and Research Committee
The Rural Districts and Islands Committee

Spokesman

Spokeswoman on education
Spokeswoman on higher education
Spokeswoman on municipal affairs
Spokeswoman on Psychiatry
Spokeswoman on research